Ephesians 4:1-16

IN JESUS
WHO, BEFORE WE DO

Recap of Last Week's Service -

We welcomed the New Year with a relaxed and uplifting service of praise and thanksgiving, focusing on thanking God and giving Him glory. We explored five key reasons why praise and thanksgiving are so important: it is the right thing to do, it marks new beginnings, it frees spiritual strongholds, it opens our hearts to relationship with God, and it brings restoration to brokenness.

We looked at biblical examples of worship and thanksgiving at new beginnings, such as Noah, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, who built altars to honour God as they started fresh journeys. We also considered times of struggle, when worship can feel hardest—like Paul and Silas in prison, Daniel in the lions' den, David in danger, Hannah when childless, and Job when he lost everything. Psalm 51:15-17 reminds us that God delights in a broken heart. Even when we are hurting, choosing to praise God is a powerful act that opens our hearts, frees us from spiritual strongholds, and allows God to bring restoration. Members of the congregation shared things they were personally thankful for, creating a wonderful atmosphere of gratitude, hope, and celebration as we step into this New Year together.
