Our Service Today

Sunday 19th July	MINISTER James Brown	CONNECT FOR JOYFUL AND FRUITFUL RELATIONSHIPS IN JESUS A CHAT WITH JP	BIBLE VERSES John 15:1-17

Recap of Last Week's Service

Dan Gibbons shared a beautiful reminder that Jesus is the living water who sustains us, especially when life feels heavy or demanding. He spoke about how we often try to carry burdens alone, forgetting that Jesus offers refreshment that doesn't depend on circumstances, energy levels, or our own ability to cope.

We were encouraged to bring our weariness honestly before God. Jesus doesn't turn us away - He meets us with compassion and fills us again. Dan highlighted that this living water isn't just for our comfort; it transforms us from the inside out, helping us to live with renewed purpose, kindness, and resilience.

The heart of the sermon was simple and powerful: stay close to Jesus, and you will never run dry.
